New Year's Eve is no average night in San Diego. The anticipation builds, the lights twinkle brighter with more ambition, and the hopes of all party-people rise to welcome in the new year at a new level of euphoria.

Andaz San Diego is bringing us their version of New Year's Eve, this year with the Euphoria NYE 2012 Party. It's the single night where deep fantasies come alive and live entertainment fills every corner of the four venues, including Ivy Nightclub, the outdoor Ivy Rooftop, Ivy Wine Bar and the Andaz Ballroom.

Andaz's Euphoria will feature live entertainment from featured and famed artists Classixx, Vokab Kompany, DJ Dainjazione of Party Rock, and DJ duo Posso. More music to get you dancing through the night includes Hyena, Crush Effect, DJ Este, Mr. Dee Jay, Scott Saunders, Gunlock, Nava and Spags on violin. The ladies of Lipstik Inc. (below) will perform on stages and around all four rooms, hypnotizing and enchanting the masses.

Stay the Night: For those looking to rest their heads on New Year's Eve, the Euphoria NYE 2012 Guest Room Packages at the Andaz Hotel are priced from $499. With the Euphoria package, guests will receive a one-night stay at the central hotel, two VIP tickets to the Euphoria NYE party, a bottle of premium champagne, and additional amenities including a complimentary welcome beverage, wireless Internet and select mini-bar items.

General admission tickets are now on sale for $50 per person, available online at ivyentertainmentsandiego.com.

Upgrade to VIP status for the night with the Andaz San Diego bottle service packages, starting at $800 for four people. All bottle service includes VIP admission to the New Year's Eve party, premium liquors with mixers, a bottle of champagne and some festive party favors.

Take your New Year's Eve to a state of Euphoria, at Andaz San Diego. Doors will open at 8pm. Call 800.660.0989 for more information. See for yourself with photos from last year's New Year's Days Party at Ivy Rooftop.
