This Sunday!: The Return of the Ivy Pool Party

By Chantal Gordon | ModernLuxury.com | May 27, 2010

That mile-high, chlorinated scene-to-end-all-scenes has returned. That's right, the Ivy Rooftop Downtown is bringing back its weekly pool party!

At the recently rechristened Andaz hotel, the party starts this Sunday at 2PM and will continue through September, and might be the largest gathering of heels-and-bikini looks this side of the Miss USA pageant. For the inaugural engagement, DJ Ross 1 will be spinning dance music, and Spa Velia will be doling out complimentary massages, manicures and pedicures. And because many good things happen in groups: The Endless Summer Package available Saturday and Sunday will include a poolside cabana, two bottles of premium liquor and mixers, Evian bottles, a fresh fruit plate and a beauty kit including sunscreen, facial self tanner and lip balm. It starts at $800 for eight to ten people, and includes a 20 percent discount on an overnight stay.

Last year we spied bikini-clad dancers doing Spiderman maneuvers all over the bars and the adjacent walls. How they'll top themselves this year is anyone's guess; but if rooftop pool parties have taught us anything, it's that gravity is overrated.

May 30; free, but reservations are recommended. The Ivy Hotel, 600 F St., 619.814.2055, ivyentertainment.com.
