LOW-KEY SOPHISTICATION

SÈ SAN DIEGO HOTEL

Luxurious, sophisticated and Zen-inspired, the Sè San Diego Hotel is pleasurable from the moment one steps through the oversized front door. Influenced by Asian design, the interior of the Sè is unique and relaxing for even the most well-traveled of guests. Stop in for a bite at Suite & Tender or hit the rooftop pool bar and lounge, Siren.

ROMANTIC RESORTS

THE GRAND DEL MAR

Elegant and absolutely stunning, The Grand Del Mar is the textbook definition of a luxury resort, with the old-world charm of a Mediterranean estate. The endless amenities include blissful spa treatments, golf courses, lavish pools, the only five-star/five-diamond restaurant in SoCal, hiking trails, horseback riding and the brand-new Club M.

LA VALENCIA

This pretty, pink palace set atop the La Jolla Cove has been wooing visitors to the area since 1926. The La Valencia is both historic and charming, adorned with picturesque murals, Spanish mosaics and Mediterranean architecture. The grounds offer stunning old-world courtyards, a sun-drenched pool overlooking the Pacific and three restaurants that evoke a European atmosphere fused with the magic of old California.

HOTEL DEL CORONADO

Echoes of Some Like It Hot, Marilyn Monroe's classic movie filmed here 51 years ago, still ring faintly in the hallways of the legendary Hotel Del Coronado. While this landmark Pacific resort was a perfect backdrop for the film, it actually has been an idyllic beachfront playground since 1888. The Del's iconic red turrets and Victorian architecture provide a fairytale ambiance morphed into a California-casual locale. Guests can take a dip in the pool with a view or just plunge right into the beautiful azure waves.

DOWNTOWN PARTY PADS

HARD ROCK HOTEL

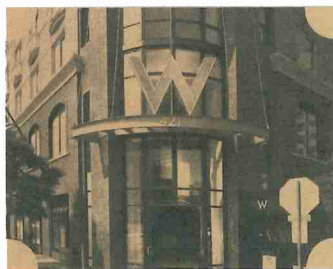

Located right at the entrance to the Gaslamp Quarter, the Hard Rock Hotel is situated in the most coveted location with easy access to just about ... well, everything. But with amenities like the Hard Rock's, who really needs to leave the hotel? Dining, nightlife, a rooftop pool and a spa, all infused with a little rock 'n' roll – yes, please.

W SAN DIEGO

Anyplace with a rooftop bar featuring a heated sand floor isn't just any old place. Often imitated but never duplicated, W San Diego is a chill lifestyle destination a few blocks removed from the Gaslamp Quarter. Grab dinner at The Restaurant, then chill with cocktails in The Living Room, or up on the rooftop at BEACH.
