We locals frequent San Diego boutique hotels for a host of reasons aside from relaxing pillow talk.

Boutique hotels in San Diego provide much more than posh accommodations; including spa indulgence, fine dining and, most importantly, rooftop nightlife. For a visually enhanced party experience, embrace our flawless weather and follow us as we ride the elevator up to luxury open-air rooftop lounges.

From Ivy Rooftop at the Andaz Hotel to Float atop Hard Rock Hotel, Siren at the Se Hotel, ALTITUDE at Marriott Gaslamp Quarter and LOUNGESix at Hotel Solamar, just to name a few, it's undeniable that San Diego hotels are home to some of the hottest rooftop lounges on the West Coast. And although Stingaree is a nightclub and not a hotel, we can't help but include its fierce rooftop in our guide. Whether you rise up to our rooftops to lounge by the pool or party under the stars, you're bound to have a blast when you explore these San Diego hotels in high style.

Discover a few of our favorite San Diego rooftop lounges.

Siren Pool Deck at Se San Diego Hotel

Siren is the fourth-floor pool bar and lounge at the Se Hotel that offers a relaxing atmosphere by day and a sexy vibe that energizes after dark. Enjoy a selection of cocktails and light cuisine in open-air luxury alongside the infinity-edged pool. Or reserve a poolside cabana with bottle service for a more intimate gathering. This summer, the Se Hotel is hosting a new Saturday pool party concept along with DJhere Productions and SpyOnVegas.com, dubbed the Hot 100 Series. (pictured above)

Ivy Rooftop at Andaz San Diego Hotel

The Ivy Rooftop allures locals with cabana-style poolside amenities, posh lounge atmosphere, VIP bottle service, breathtaking wrap-around views of the downtown San Diego skyline, and live DJ sets situated under the stars. The Andaz Hotel promotes Ivy Entertainment's inhibition-free mantra that extends throughout the upscale outdoor oasis. During the summer, Ivy Rooftop hosts weekly pool parties that offer hotel guests and locals a sophisticated take on Sunday Funday with craft cocktails, relaxing music and cushioned day beds.

Float at Hard Rock Hotel San Diego

Through the polished hotel lobby, guests head up the elevator to the mid-level outdoor deck. As the harbor breeze hits your skin, you awaken to greet lantern lit trees shading a grand oasis filled with fire pit lounges and a poolside lounge surrounded by chic cabanas. A wrap-around bar is shielded by a lit overhang and graffiti-style street art tackles select bar walls, proposing questions of youth, love and the risks of rock 'n roll. Guests lounge in stark black VIP booths, accented by white and zebra skin pillow plush. Each booth is connected by its own blazing fire bit, enabling upper-crust guests to remain warm while enjoying the uninhibited view of the San Diego skyline. During spring and summer, Hard Rock Hotel hosts the signature Intervention Sunday pool party. (pictured below)
