It was a sizzling weekend at Andaz San Diego, where Harrison Ford, Calista Flockhart, Daniel Craig, Rachel Weisz, Olivia Wilde, Ron Howard, Brian Grazer and Jon Favreau were spotted on the Rooftop at the Andaz San Diego for the star-studded "Cowboys & Aliens" Premiere Filmmakers Dinner during the annual Comic-Con extravaganza. During the four-day event, celebrities including Daniel Craig, Rachel Weisz, and Olivia Wilde stayed in Andaz's sophisticated guestrooms and suites complete with Thai bed linens, in-room bottle service and stunning views of downtown San Diego. Hollywood's hottest summer star, Olivia Wilde stayed in Andaz's signature Star Suite, complete with plush-sized king bunk beds, stripper pole and open shower. They may have been trying to hide their recent secret nuptials, but Daniel Craig and Rachel Weisz canoodled in Andaz's Sweet Suite, which features cityscape views, couture furnishings, an opulent soaking tub and a spacious shower. Other guests included Jonah Hill and the cast of AMC's "The Walking Dead," who held their panel event at Andaz San Diego on Friday.
