SUMMER 2010 CALENDAR

POOL PARTIES

San Diego may be known for its beach scene, but those wanting a break from the sand can still soak up the sun while enjoying a relaxed vibe at the Ivy Rooftop at Andaz San Diego. Launching Memorial Day weekend on May 30, guests can cool off in the pool or stretch out on a cushioned bed every Sunday beginning at 2 p.m. through September.

“Pool Party Sundays capture everything that’s remarkable about summer including great food, outdoor entertainment, socializing and relaxation,” said Rusty Middleton, general manager of Andaz. “People generally head to the beach during the day and downtown at night but now we are offering the best of both worlds at the Ivy Rooftop. The celebration is sure to continue long after the sun sets.”
