Prince Harry parties at Andaz San Diego

Our favorite redheaded prince stepped out in style this weekend, partying at San Diego's trendy Andaz hotel.

We're big fans of the brand, Hyatt's boutique-style concept that focuses on personal style and high-touch service.

Rumors state that Prince Harry partied till the wee hours at the hotel's Ivy nightclub.

We're wondering if he also booked one of their "Star Suites" complete with bunk beds and stripper poles, and what the palace would have to say about that one.
