Andaz San Diego seems a perfect choice with some of the most sought after pads in the city fitted with amenities such as bunk beds, couture furnishings and private cabanas at the sultry roof top pool

Sweet Suite:The decadent Sweet Suite-- a favorite of Michael Buble and Kathy Griffin-- features a flirty ambiance with fashion furnishings, modern design elements, an opulent soaking tub and a shower built for a party. There's also a great view of the city. have all enjoyed this suite.

Star Suite:More hotspot than hotel room, the ultra glam Star Suite spans 1,275 square feet that lets the imagination run wild with plush King bunk beds, a separate master King bedroom, two full bathrooms and a lounge-like living area with designer seating and a plush sectional sofa. John Mayer and the entire band of Maroon Five chilled out in this suite.

Cabana Suite:This one spreads out 750 square feet and comes with a private spiral staircase to the rooftop pool and a private poolside cabana. Upgraded amenities in this suite include walk-in showers and separate deep-soaking tubs, plush sectional sofa, and an extra half-bath in the generous living area.

Andaz Loft: The Andaz Loft is an ultra-modern urban hideaway. Plush furniture, rich woods and streamlined furnishings decorate this downtown San Diego hotel room, while high-tech amenities balance comfort with necessity. This stylish hotel suite includes expansive sleep and sitting areas. Singer Adam Lambert rocked out in this suite. The 159 urban hotel sits in the Gaslamp Quarter of San Diego and offers complimentary welcome drinks at check in, WiFi, free local phone calls, night club, restaurant, pool and restaurant.
