Have you ever fantasized about going to a party at Hugh Hefner's Playboy mansion in Los Angeles. Your LA Travel Diva Examiner has actually been to a few of Hef's blowouts and it's all that it's cracked out to be and much more. It's one sexy setting.

Well all you want-to-be bunnies can let it all hang out in San Diego on October 28 when the Andaz San Diego, <http://www.andazsandiego.com>) throws its 2nd annual Playboy Mansion Madness Halloween spectacular.

This chic, urban hotel celebrates the salacious side of the holiday in true "Hef" style with real life, scantily-clad playmates such as Jessica Burciaga, Penelope Jiminez, Ashley Mattingly, Heather Smith and Irina Voronina frolicking around the Andaz Ivy Nightclub accompanied by entertainment by some of today's hottest DJs and the Lipstick Inc. dancers.

Go dressed like Hef in a silk robe, put on a bunny outfit or skimpy best and enter the "Best Bunny Contest." Hotel guests receive complimentary admission for two with Halloween rates starting at $220 per night. General admission tickets start at $20. Upgraded bottle service admission is available and includes a private VIP seating area, premium liquor, personal cocktail server and security.

For information and tickets visit www.ivyentertainmentsandiego.com or call 619-814-2055. Hotel reservations at www.andazsandiego.com.

Family-Style Monster Mash at Hyatt Regency Mission Bay Spa and Marina

A little less glam, more spook, and G-rated, the Hyatt Mission Bay features family-oriented Halloween fun on October 23-24 and 29-30, 2011. Festivities include poolside monster mash hula hoop contests, pumpkin painting, hair-raising waterslides enveloped in fog and spider-webbed pool cabanas. Come evening, there's trick-or-treating, creepy cocktails and spirited poolside movies. Need more? Guests can visit neighboring SeaWorld for its Halloween Spooktacular activities including a silly and spooky Pirates 4-D movie experience, The Search for Captain Lucky's Treasure walk-through adventure, gobs of ghoulish goodies for trick-or-treaters around the park, a children's costume parade and an enchanting underwater Halloween Fantasea. Rates start at $199 per night. Visit www.missionbayhyatt.com.
